

Anvi's travel experience brought to the sand pit

Anvi said, "this is the building of the airport and that is where we go and show our ticket the ticket aunty comes and she will take our passport. The Aunty will give us the passport in the plane. The airport has a building a runway and the plane will land on the wheels."

"Wow! Anvi would you like to share what you made?"

Anvi said, "this is the Delhi Airport because my Naani lives there.

Some planes have landed and some planes are flying. We are going to Singapore."

Anvi is teaching Saachi how to make a plane

Anvi is making the road for the runway

Saachi on watching Anvi wants to join her but after making one plane loses interest.

"This is the truck that carries all the luggage to the building. There are buses also planes land and people walk for a little bit then they get into the bus and they go to take their luggage."

These are the buses.

Why do we need a passport ? " Because we don't get to sit in the plane if we don't have one."

Analysis :

Anvi displays creative and imaginative dispositions for learning as she is often seen representing her feelings and experiences through her pictures and objects. Anvi prefers solitary play, although she engages with her peers at times.

Learning Outcomes which were evident during this learning journey:

1) Children have a strong sense of identity

- Children will have strong self -identities and will feel acknowledged and respected as unique individuals.
- Children will be strong socially and emotionally.

2) Children are confident and capable learners

- Children will learn about and make sense of the world around them

3) Children are effective communicators

- Children will make sense of experiences and broaden their understanding of the world through language
- Children will express themselves in a multitude of ways, both creatively and imaginatively

How to take it forward :

Create opportunities to support Anvi's imagination and creativity.
Provide opportunities for dramatic play where she could develop her social skills.
